

Fabian Meijer

Who is he?

Fabian is a 25-year-old Dutch and Japanese boy. He is a human/nekogami hybrid. Although he is not aware that he is half nekogami. He is currently the co-owner of Whiskers & Coffee Cat Café alongside his twin sister Amari and their friend Julia.

Where was he born?

Fabian was born in Amsterdam in the Netherlands.

Who are his parents?

He was born to a Japanese mother and a Dutch father. His mother is called Keiko Kitagawa and his father is called Johan Meijer.

Keiko is a nekogami and is over 212 years old, while his father is 58 years old and is human. Johan is aware of Keiko being a nekogami, but neither of them have felt that Amari and Fabian should know. They don't want them to know as they feel the twins would have a more normal life thinking they were just human like their father.

His parents both work in zoology and met while Johan was a university student in Japan. He was a daredevil when he was younger and challenged himself to study abroad in a very different culture and eco system. In their spare time both Johan and Keiko volunteer at an animal sanctuary in Haarlem.

Where does he live?

Fabian currently lives in Kaijōyama in the Tokyo prefecture in Japan with his twin sister Amari, his friend Julia, and four cats, Menno, Fenris, Pixie, and Monty.

Fabian is the co-owner of Whiskers and Coffee which is a cat café. In his spare time he is a film maker. He enjoys creating YouTube videos about Japan, culture, travel, wildlife, and cats. He occasionally helps serve customers, but usually leaves that to his sister and Julia.
