

Upon interacting with Theran, the quest 'A Sibling Bond' will start.

THERAN

My sister hasn't seen me in almost a millennium, whereas for me it's like no time has passed at all.

ENVEA

It must have been hard for her. Do you know what happened to you?

THERAN

No, I'm not sure. Marnis thinks we must have travelled forward in time. Others say we could have been suspended in time. We just don't know.

ENVEA

(Feeling sad for Theran and Luna)

Is there anything I can do for you?

THERAN

No.

(Envea starts to leave Theran)

Wait!! There is something. Could you find out what has to her this past millennia?

ENVEA

(This option will keep the quest going, Luna will not approve with it of this option.)

Alright, I'll see what I can find out.

(This option will complete the quest, Luna will approve of this option.)

No, I think you should ask her. She hasn't seen you for a thousand years.

THERAN

(If 1st option is chosen)

Thank you.

(If 2nd option is chosen)

Your right, I shouldn't have asked you of that. I'll go see her myself.
